GREENSQUARE AVON & SEVERN AREAS

In partnership with

Newburn House

Accommodation for 16-24 year old women who are pregnant or have one young child

Phone 01225 769989

housing people, building communities

ISSUED: NOVEMBER 2014

Newburn House is accommodation for young women, owned and managed by GreenSquare.

Who can use the service?

The project provides short term accommodation to four women aged between 16 and 24 years old who are pregnant or have one young child, and:

- are homeless or threatened with homelessness;
- live in the Wiltshire district or have a connection to the area;
- are able to demonstrate a willingness to cooperate with all support agencies involved with the project, and take part in activities either as part of a group or individually; and
- want to live independently in the long term.

Support offered

The project offers:

- information, guidance and encouragement to enable residents to experience the difficulties, challenges and rewards that having their own home can bring;
- an environment that enables residents to make informed choices about their long term housing and support needs;
- a safe and secure place to stay with support from others in a similar situation and an opportunity to widen social networks;

- an opportunity to participate in a wide range of practical and interesting activities; and
- learning opportunities covering independent living skills, positive parenting, benefit and managing money advice with access to educational and vocational opportunities.

Facilities within the project

- Good quality accommodation and support.
- Own furnished bedroom, shared kitchen and bathrooms.
- Attractive enclosed garden.
- Local amenities within easy walking distance.
- Laundry facilities.
- Staff who will respect privacy and offer practical help and are available between 9am and 4pm, Monday to Friday.
- A resettlement service when 'move on' accommodation is identified.

How you apply

Referrals can be made by:

- the housing options team at Wiltshire Council;
- by another agency e.g. health visitors, social workers, voluntary organisations; or
- self referrals.

If you feel you meet our eligibility criteria please call Newburn House on 01225 769989, or complete and return this slip to:
